V. SENATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE CHAIR'S REMARKS

Senate Executive Committee (SEC) Chair Jeffrey Eric Jenkins (FAA) welcomed new and returning senators. There are several matters still under consideration by the SEC including research policy, educational policy, statutory enfranchisement, and accessibility. Jenkins noted that he and Senate Clerk Roether have a meeting scheduled with Representative Carol Ammons to discuss the Illinois Open Meetings Act (OMA) related to accessibility and hope to find ways to enhance accessibility and equity in Senate meetings.

There are several System level documents that will be transmitted to the Senate from University Senates Conference (USC) requesting feedback, including one on ethical standards, which was formerly known as the Code of Conduct, and one on how policy documents are handled. The USC document regarding understanding the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) protocols and how individuals may protect their own privacy while following the law has been distributed and the SEC has been asked to share this document widely. The large package of proposed Statutes revisions, ST-83, continues to be under review by the Senate Committee on University Statutes and Senate Procedures (SP).

VI. CHANCELLOR'S REMARKS

John Coleman, Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs & Provost, gave remarks in the absence of Chancellor Jones. Not only is this the first Senate meeting of the academic year, but also the first in-person Senate meeting in three and one-half years. Provost Coleman has now been in his position for about eight weeks and in case anyone has not gotten the chance to meet with him, he shared a little about his background. Coleman expressed the importance of being part of the Big Ten Academic Alliance which is an amazing collection of universities with a commitment and expectation of institutional integrity, as well as a commitment to research and instructional excellence, and in doing work that matters for the communities each university is part of. Coleman shared his absolutely unwavering belief in the importance of shared governance and the equal importance to a shared commitment to academic freedom. Coleman concluded by thanking senators for their participation in engaging with the process of shared governance.

VII. QUESTIONS

Faculty Senator Roseman (MDA) expressed concern about student housing facilities lacking air conditioning. Robin Kaler, Associate Chancellor for Public Affairs, noted that there is a plan in place to install air conditioning in those student housing facilities currently without air conditioning. However, there are also several housing facilities scheduled for demolition over the next few years, rendering the installation of air conditioning in these facilities uneconomical.

VIII. REVIEW OF PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

Senate Parliamentarian Kaamilyah Abdullah-Span, JD reviewed basic parliamentary procedure, and gave various examples of motions and how those motions can be used effectively and appropriately. Abdullah-Span noted that additional parliamentary procedure information can be found on the Senate website, along with other useful information such as meeting dates and times, meeting agendas and minutes, and Senate governing documents.
