Program Justification

Provide a brief justification of the program, including highlights of the program objectives, and the careers, occupations, or further educational opportunities for which the program will prepare graduates, when appropriate.

Minoritarian Aesthetics is an interdisciplinary field of study that travels across the aesthetic medium, from dance, art, theatre, music, creative nonfiction, and design for example, to highlight communities and voices of difference. Paying attention to how race, gender, sexuality, class, ethnicity, disability, and geography are studied and performed and also inform art practices, this field understands performance and aesthetics both broadly and as inseparable from everyday life. Focusing on performances across everyday life and acts on stage, students will learn to see expressive culture as critically as a staged production. Learning across multiple disciplines (including performance studies, comparative literatures, art and art history, dance, music, relational ethnic studies, gender and women's studies, and theater, to name a few), students will have opportunities to create cutting edge academic work that honors both theory and practice. Students will have opportunities to connect with artists and scholars from various global institutions, attend symposia, lectures, workshops, incubation sessions, and other events while familiarizing themselves with the importance of interdisciplinary scholarship.

FAA 495 will be offered every fall term, FAA 494 and FAA 496 will rotate every other spring, and FAA 490 and FAA 493 will be offered every term dependent on student interest/need.

This opportunity was originally made possible thanks to funding from the Mellon Foundation through the Minoritarian Aesthetics Across Difference grant and the Chancellor's Call To Action grant to Address Racism & Social Justice.

Note re: FAA 490. This course is repeatable up to a total of 8 credit hours and the 'select 9 hours from' section does allow FAA 490 to meet requirements in that category, with no limit. FAA 490 requires instructor permission to enroll and students will always need at least one other course in that section to meet that category requirement.

Please include how the proposed minor requires some depth in the subject, but not as extensive as the major.

There is no major in this subject available to University of Illinois students. This minor offers a comprehensive look at key elements of Minoritarian Aesthetics not offered by any other degree, concentration, or undergraduate minor currently available at this university.

Program Regulation and Assessment

Plan to Assess and Improve Student Learning

Illinois Administrative Code: 1050.30(b)(1)(D) Provision is made for guidance and counseling of students, evaluations of student performance, continuous monitoring of progress of students toward their degree objectives and appropriate academic record keeping.

List the program's student learning outcomes. Each outcome should identify what students are expected to know and/or be able to do upon completing this program.

1. Students will understand the foundational texts and theories underpinning minoritarian aesthetics
2. Students will create original work based on the field's discourse, including interactions between aesthetics, performance, politics, and identity.
3. Students will learn to work collaboratively, focusing on communicating and sharing ideas to foster community
4. Students will be prepared to apply for work across respective fields

Describe how, when, and where these learning outcomes will be assessed.

Describe here:

All MA courses will be evaluated yearly by the Minor Aesthetics Lab Principal Investigator and the Program Manager to ensure that they address relevant historical context, social issues, and new developments in their respective fields.

MA courses as a whole will be evaluated by the PI and the Program Manager every three years to ensure that they continue to meet program learning objectives and that any adjustments needed to improve student learning are made in a timely manner.

Coordinate with instructors of required courses to collect course specific learning outcome data relevant to the minor

Survey of graduating students of the minor

Identify faculty expectations for students' achievement of each of the stated student learning outcomes. What score, rating, or level of expertise will signify that students have met each outcome? Provide rating rubrics as necessary.

Faculty assessment of student attainment of learning objectives will primarily be assessed through satisfactory completion of the individual courses needed to earn the minor, as represented by their final course grades, active participation in courses, and course assignments.

Explain the process that will be implemented to ensure that assessment results are used to improve student learning.

Minor core courses as a whole will be evaluated by the Minor Aesthetics Lab Principal Investigator (Sandra Ruiz) and the MAL Program Manager, once hired, every three years to ensure that they continue to meet program learning objectives and that any adjustments needed to improve student learning are made in a timely manner.

Program of Study

Baccalaureate degree requires at least 120 semester credit hours or 180 quarter credit hours and at least 40 semester credit hours (60 quarter credit hours) in upper division courses" (source: <https://www.ibhe.org/assets/files/PublicAdminRules2017.pdf>). For proposals for new bachelor's degrees, if this minimum is not explicitly met by specifically-required 300- and/or 400-level courses, please provide information on how the upper-division hours requirement will be satisfied.

An undergraduate minor should consist of at least 16 - and no more than 21 hours - of course work, with at least 6 hours of 300- or 400- level courses. Except for clearly remedial offerings, prerequisite courses within the sponsoring unit count towards the total; prerequisite courses outside the sponsoring unit do not count toward this total. The unit sponsoring the minor and that unit's college may set educationally necessary prerequisites for eligibility for the minor within these constraints. Does this proposal meet these criteria?

Yes

Description of program for the catalog page. This is not official content, it is used to help build the new catalog page for the program. Can be edited in the catalog by the college or department.

The Minoritarian Aesthetics undergraduate minor will provide students with a blueprint for understanding the connection between everyday life practices and acts across performance stages. The minor pays close attention to aesthetic practices across minor voices by working across media, genre, discipline, and practice-based pedagogy, and across differences from race, gender and sexuality to disability and class. Working alongside artists, scholars, pedagogues, and art building initiatives, the minor will highlight expressive cultures by moving with and across mediums such as theater, dance, music, and art to name a few. This minor is open to students in all majors, but all minor requirements must be completed before graduation.

Financial Resources

How does the unit intend to financially support this proposal?

The Minor Aesthetics Lab (MAL) is in part funded by the Mellon Foundation through the Minoritarian Aesthetics Across Difference grant and the Chancellor's Call to Action grant to address Racism & Social Injustice. The initial launch of the graduate/undergraduate minor in Minoritarian Aesthetics is supported through these two grants as initiatives to drive awareness and action towards disrupting institutional inequities. Grant funds are intended to create infrastructure to expand this work beyond the College of Fine and Applied Arts faculty research to reach students across campus.

In the 23-24 academic year, a portion of these funds are supporting one faculty member in the MA course and curricula development and visiting artist residencies. Five undergraduate courses will generate instructional units beginning in Fall 2024 and grant funds will continue to be used in part to supplement financial resources needed to continue the launch of the MAL and the minor programs. The Mellon grant renewal will be submitted with the potential to maintain and grow the program. These initiatives have the support of the college office in FAA, which will continue to identify funding opportunities and appropriately manage the financial resources supporting the program.

Will the unit need to seek campus or other external resources?

No

Library Resources

Describe your proposal's impact on the University Library's resources, collections, and services. If necessary please consult with the appropriate disciplinary specialist within the University Library.

Prof. Sandra Ruiz has been working closely with the Ricker Library of Art and Architecture, specifically their art, architecture, and performance collections across media. We'll be working closely with Siobhan McKissic at the Ricker Library, Paula Carns, as well as the Music and Performing Arts Library (Kate Lambaria). Siobhan McKissic is the lead collaborator and multiple exchanges have occurred in Fall 2023 as part of the program development to ensure that the library collections, resources and services are sufficient to meet needs and growth projections to support this graduate minor. Program leadership agrees to revisit with the Library in 12 months of program start.

Hello Augusto,

I'm checking in regarding the 4 remaining FAA courses in your 1404 Head queue that have requested cross-listings with AAS. They are all courses in Minoritarian Aesthetics out of FAA, which will be included in an undergraduate and graduate minor submitted this spring. I see that you already approved FAA/AAS 494 and thank you for that.

Please let me and Prof. Sandra Ruiz know if you or the committee have any questions while reviewing the remaining 4 course cross-listings!

Nicole,

No need to roll back 494—this email of yours is a wonderful explanation of the courses, the rationale behind them, and the plans for offering them in the future. Just what I wanted to see.

I will go ahead and approve the two remaining undergraduate courses. I'll also run the two grad seminars by Manisha Basu, but I'm sure that she'll also approve them based on this explanation.

Subject: RE: FAA cross-listings with ENGL

Hello Robert,

I appreciate your thoughtfulness and can jump in from the admin side of things.

I met with our FAA Dean, Kevin Hamilton, and Sandra and there is an intention to support the Minoritarian Aesthetics initiative by bringing in additional instructors who may teach some of the courses. We recognize that there is a specific knowledge base and skillset for this area and Dean Hamilton is committed to working with Sandra regarding staffing of these courses along the projected timelines below. The courses are all coming in at once as part of the development of this initiative, which requires the courses to be completely approved before the minor proposals can move forward for review. We have been using the CIM system and emails from me to the CIM approver after the direct links are sent to engage in consultation and I apologize if this approach did not align with earlier consultation.

Grad minor course offering timeframe

- FAA 495 will be offered every fall term, FAA 594 and FAA 596 will rotate every other spring, and FAA 490 will be offered every term dependent on student interest. All graduate students completing the minor could complete it in three terms.

Undergrad minor course offering timeframe

- FAA 495 will be offered every fall term, FAA 494 and FAA 496 will rotate every other spring, and FAA 490 and FAA 493 will be offered every term dependent on student interest/need.

I completely understand the concern about potentially needing numbers at the 300 and 400 level and I have seen some of the same apprehension in a few of our FAA units as well.

It is your discretion on whether to withdraw approval for an ENGL cross-listing from the already-approved FAA 494 Writing with Performance course and to determine the appropriate decision regarding the four remaining courses in your queue to review.

Please let us know if you have any further questions!

Dear Sandra and Nicole,

I don't particularly have any problem with these classes (although Manisha Basu should be the one getting asked about the grad seminar crosslists as she's our DGS).

I was just surprised to see so many of them coming in at once and "flooding the zone," so to speak. I wasn't consulted about the crosslists prior to being asked about approving them, and I wish I had fully understood this before signing off on 494.

Please bring me up to speed on this minor. Is there a plan to make sure that they're all taught regularly? I don't want to see any of them run afoul of the 6-10 rule. Does Sandra have back-up in covering the courses, or is it all reliant on her?

Again, I don't want to be a speed bump, but I'm looking at campus forcing the 40 advanced hour rule on all majors and how that will push a number of our courses up over 300—and I want to make sure to have room in that case.

Hello Jeffrey,

I'm checking in regarding the 5 FAA courses in your 1883 Committee Chair queue that have requested cross-listings with Theatre. They are all courses in Minoritarian Aesthetics, which will be included in an undergraduate and graduate minor submitted this spring.

Please let me know if you or the committee have any questions!

Best,
Nicole

Hi Sandra & Nicole,

Thanks for your patience while we ran this through our department's curriculum committee. I'm writing now as GWS Associate Chair to affirm that the department supports the inclusion of a GWS course category as an introductory course requirement for the undergraduate minor in Minoritarian Aesthetics.

We'll look forward to considering the cross-listing requests as they make their way through the CIM system!

Warmly,
Toby

Hello all,

I don't anticipate any problems with the inclusion of the GWS rubric, but our process is to run these requests through the Curriculum Committee. I'll prioritize it at our January meeting and, assuming committee approval, will send the letter of support promptly.

Warmly,
Toby

Hello Mimi,

The office of the provost asked me to respond and ask that the approval for the GWS rubric in the minor be separate from the course cross-list approvals, which will come through the automatic workflow request in CIM.

If at this time, you can provide a letter of support for the inclusion of the GWS rubric as an option in the minor you can reply via email. Or if that also needs to also go to the curriculum committee, of course we understand and at that time you can reply to me via email with the decision made.

Thank you,
Nicole

To: Dr. Nguyen and Dr. Beauchamp,

I am writing to request a letter of support on behalf of a proposed undergraduate minor in Minoritarian Aesthetics, in which we hope to include a GWS course option.

I have attached the program proposal, where on page 5 you may view our proposed requirement that students complete any US Minority Cultures Gen Ed or any GWS course. The first requirement (FAA 201 Black Arts Today) is a US Minority Cultures Gen Ed and the second requirement allows students to pick a second US Minority Cultures Gen Ed or a GWS course. I believe this option may bring additional students to GWS courses, without any challenges or burden of providing a set list with expected regular offerings.

For us to proceed with the approval of the undergraduate minor, I am asking for a letter of support to allow us to include the GWS course category requirement. An example letter could be a reply to this email which states: On behalf of the Department of Gender and Women's Studies I support the inclusion of a GWS course category as an introductory course requirement for the undergraduate minor in Minoritarian Aesthetics.

Dr. Sandra Ruiz is an affiliate faculty member for the Department of Gender and Women's Studies and is the lead for this new initiative. You will also receive cross-listing requests through the CIM system to crosslist five courses as part of both the undergraduate and graduate minor being proposed in Minoritarian Aesthetics. I have included those courses below for your reference.

FAA 495 Minoritarian Aesthetics Practicum (every fall)

- Cross-listing request, which will come through the CIM system: GWS 425

FAA 494: Writing with Performance: Politics of Love (every other spring)

- Cross-listing request, which will come through the CIM system: GWS 494

FAA 594: Writing the Minor - Minoritarian Aesthetics (every other spring)

- Cross-listing request, which will come through the CIM system: GWS 594

FAA 496: Experiments in Queer Performance (every other spring)

- Cross-listing request, which will come through the CIM system: GWS 496

FAA 596: Experiments in MA (every other spring)

- Cross-listing request, which will come through the CIM system: GWS 596

If you have any questions or would like additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,
Nicole

Subject: RE: Proposals to Establish the Undergraduate and Graduate Minors in Minoritarian Aesthetics

Good morning Jenny,

1. The reason there is a GWS letter attached and nothing else is because GWS is the only course rubric that directly appears in the program of study for a minor. For each of the cross-listed courses, the cross-listed unit department heads were in the course workflow and approved in the CIM system. For each unit, I had also emailed them letting them know that the courses were a part of proposed graduate and undergraduate minors. I attached my email exchanges with English, AAS, GWS, and Theatre regarding this.
2. Sandra is currently serving as manager of the MAL and the funds are available to hire the new manager, so I suppose I was looking at it as a short-term and long-term plan. We can change this to yes for clarification.

3. There are no prerequisite courses, but the 400-level indicates the advanced nature of the course.

Best,
Nicole

Subject: Proposals to Establish the Undergraduate and Graduate Minors in Minoritarian Aesthetics

Hi Sandra and Nicole,

I am the subcommittee chair in charge of getting your proposals through the Educational Policy Committee.

Some members of my subcommittee had questions after reviewing the proposal that I'm hoping you can answer.

1. The proposal has a letter from Gender and Women's Studies for access to those courses, but the subcommittee would feel better if the units within FAA who are teaching the core courses were added. For instance, many of the courses that are offered as FAA courses are cross-listed with AAS, ENGL, and THEA as well as GWS. Have they been consulted about the proposals and do they agree to the projected enrollments? (This applies to both proposals)
2. The proposal in CIM-P says "no" to the question about "Will the program or revision require staffing (faculty, advisors, etc.) beyond what is currently available?" yet the proposals both mention hiring the MAL Program Manager to help with the administration of the program. There is mention of the Mellon Foundation and Chancellors Call to Action grant as funding sources in the "financial resources" section so maybe the "no" was because it's not requiring any state funding and using foundation funds? Could you clarify this? (This applies to both proposals)
3. There was also a question about the 400 level courses not having pre-requisite content or courses. Are there any prerequisites to the minor or could a freshman take these courses? (This only applies to the UG proposal)

Best,

JENNY AMOS, PH.D. (she/her)
